What is P.A.T.T.?

P.A.T.T. is an acronym that stands for Passing Along the Torch. It was founded through the inspiration that God give to O'Violet J. Oree. Because she knows what God has done in her life to motivate and inspire her to dream and hold fast to those dreams, it inspired her to want to see other women live out their dreams as well. There are so many experiences and circumstances that many women have been privy to that can be shared with other women who are either facing new challenges in their lives or the many young women who have yet to know the struggles of issues that are common to all women. So God gave her this vision of starting PATT. Experienced and knowledgeable women are given a platform to share with us the lessons they have learned in life and the lessons the Lord has taught them as his servants. Just because we are living in modern times does not mean we toss out what our grandmothers have said, our mothers have said, or what other women have shared. Much of the information they have shared is not "old and foggy". It is rather tried and true because life is a cycle and what goes around and comes around again. Don't throw away the rich insights but let's keep passing it on. There is a lot of wisdom in what others have experienced and it does not need to be our exact circumstances, but the principles to be learned are yet valuable to our growth as a woman.

When we pass along the torch we are supporting the future of women who can benefit from the wisdom we have gained in the struggles of life. This insight can help guide and motivate women to make good decisions about their lives. Good choices and decisions drive our lives forward and choices and decisions not thought through will destroy the seed of hope that lies within. We may walk many different paths throughout life, but many of the same conditions confront us all. Our spouses, our families, our friends, our neighbors, and our careers are the threads in the fabric of life that connects us as women. We have to juggle all of these things and yet become the woman that God has destined us to be. How we deal with it all will shape our families, our future, and our character as a woman. As God fearing Christian women lets ban together and support one to another because we too have the responsibility of passing along the torch!

2017 P.A.T.T. Greetings

Greetings,

My sisters in Christ and by gender too, I greet you with a heart and mind full of gratitude and love of life because we get to meet again on this glorious occasion to pass on lots of thoughts, insights, and ideas that God has planted in each of us. We are not going to wait until we get to heaven to shout about it, we are going to share some of that joy right now. I am going to use the words of TV personality Wendy Williams, “How you doing?” Is it well with your family? Is it well on the job? Is it well in the community? Is it well in the church? Finally, is it well with you? If you could not say yes to all of those questions, guest what? We need this weekend. Our focus is “Take it to the Lord in Prayer!” God doesn’t want us going around stressing all the time and that means we need to learn how to pray. So you have come on the right weekend. Together we are going to learn a wealth of knowledge about prayer. The more we know, the more we’ll glow. We’ll get our peace back, our joy back, our fellowship back, and our zest for life will be evident.

So while you are here this weekend relax, learn, and meet new people. We live in such a small world of work, family, and church that we don’t get to fellowship with one another often. I advise you to not waste one minute of your time here. Soak it all in, receive a blessing, and be a blessing. In case you don’t know, we all need refreshing. I am going to draw on your energy, you are going to draw on mine, and we are all going to draw on each other. Occasions like these are never a one sided picture. You are not just coming to gain from the presenters and speakers only, but you are also going to give out some of your thoughts and insights as they are triggered. This helps fuel all of us because God has given all of us a piece of the answers in life.

Welcome to another PATT Conference! We are so glad you are here and look forward to getting to meet and know you.

2016 P.A.T.T. Conference Recap

Our 2016 P.A.T.T. Conference was held in Beaufort, SC on March 18-20th, and felt like a holy convocation. Our theme was "Give Him Thanks." I didn't realize that there were so many things we need to be thankful for. Even when God doesn't do what we expect him to do or tells us NO, we must still be thankful.

There were many new faces on this our Seventh Annual P.A.T.T. Conference. As a matter of fact, about fifteen new faces were present and by the looks in their eyes, they were enjoying themselves, which is always a good thing. At our Friday night reception, we used the hospitality suite at the Holiday Inn Hotel which was close and intimate, so we were able to all be girls. The presence of the Lord was in the room. We had fun, we laughed, we testified, we shared words of wisdom, and we were entertained by none other than our dear Mother Bernadine. Some powerful testimonies came forth from ladies there and a season of thanks was certainly the order of the day.

Saturday was a day of workshops, sightseeing, and the evening banquet. There were six workshops presented and they were each repeated so that everyone could enjoy. Our founder, O'Violet J. Oree presented a workshop entitled "A Woman is Who She Thinks She Is." Vanetta Webb's workshop was "Giving Him Thanks in Brokenness." Evangelist Mary E. Washington spoke on "Reshaping and Renewing the Brain." "Even When God Says NO, I Will Still Give Him Thanks" was presented by Evangelist Annette Dunmeyer. "Give the Lord The Praise" was presented by Evangelist Sharon Choice. Adina A. Oree presented, "Having the Courage to Walk in Your Purpose." Each of our ladies were awesome and presented in their own unique style. We took notes and participated in every component of what the ladies presented in these workshops. We could hear excitement through the walls as each session was going on. Certainly the spirit of the Lord was with us because there was a powerful connection among us and we were moved to make the changes needed in our lives.

The Saturday Evening banquet was absolutely magnificent. We had great food, great service, great entertainment, a nice attendance, and an excellent speaker. Evangelist Mary E. Washington broke it down for us; "An Attitude of Gratitude." We all have a reason to be grateful. We need to give more thanks and do less complaining.

This PATT conference came together so well and everything turned out to be beyond our expectations. God always does more than we ask of him and for that I am thankful. Please join us next time as we visit Beaufort, SC.

What do you know about prayer? (Ice Breaker – O’Violet J. Oree)

Can you figure out who prayed that prayer or who was delivered because of the prayer that was made?

9:00 am – 9:40 am

Conditioning for Prayer (Presenter – Evang. Dorothy Johnson)

In order for us to be effective in establishing a life of prayer we need to be conditioned for it. What are the parameters that make for a good prayer life? There is a cliché that says, “If you fast you’ll last and if you pray you’ll stay.” We want a life-long relationship of prayer with the Father. Let’s look at how we start and how we develop it.

Purpose of Prayer (Presenter – Pastor Mary Everett Washington)

What purpose does prayer serve? Why do we need to pray and is it really necessary to pray? People say prayer changes things. Does it really change things? Find out how prayer is purposeful and necessary as believers. We want to live a blessed life and it involves prayer.

9:50 am – 10:30 am

Make Me a House of Prayer Lord - Intercessory Prayer (Presenter – Apostle Deborah Campbell)

One of the greatest positions in the kingdom of God is that of a prayer warrior. An intercessor knows in whom they believe. As a born again believer you are called to be an intercessor. This is not a position assigned to a selected group in the church. The Bible declares that men ought to always pray for we are the temple of the Lord.

Prayer Login (Presenter- Evang. Joyce Brown)

Prayer Login is a free faith system that is available for all believers in relationship with God to communicate their needs; spiritually, physically, and emotionally. The prayer login helps us to acknowledge the phase of our authority in prayer to defeat our enemy Satan from all levels. It is an input system for the healing of the nations. Come and learn more about it.

10:40 am– 11:10 pm

The Power of Prayer (Presenter – Evang. Deborah Dawson)

Do you know the power of prayer? What makes one prayer weak and another powerful? Or is there such a thing as weak or strong prayers? Is it the words we say, the length of our prayer, or the posture we take that gives credence to our prayers? If prayer has power, what does that power do?

Strategic Praying (Presenter – Co-Pastor O’Violet J. Oree)

Prayer takes on many forms and there is no one form that addresses all the needs and issues of our lives. If we are going to be armed to fight in prayer, we need to be aware of the different prayer strategies that exist. This will help equip us to fight off the spirit of the adversary. He uses all kinds of weapons against us and we also need our arsenal, which is mighty through God; to the pulling down of strongholds.

Repeat Workshops (Choose the one you missed)

11:40 am – 12:20 pm

Presenter's Biography

O'Violet J. Oree

O'Violet J. Oree grew up in Dale, SC. In 1973 she started college life at Baptist College at Charleston, SC. In April 1974, during her first year she received personal salvation. While yet a college student, she met her husband through a friend at the College of Charleston. They met in a revival where she and a lot of other college girls were lifting up the name of Jesus. They were married in August of 1976 and have five wonderful children, who are living prosperous lives of their own.

After receiving a Bachelors of Science Degree at Baptist College at Charleston, now Southern University, she obtained a Master Degree in the Art of Teaching from the College of Charleston. For many years O'Violet has worn many hats and continues being trained in ministry and early child care. In 2009 she and her husband received their Honorary Doctoral Degrees from Grace Hill Bible College. Shortly afterward her husband initiated the start of Grace Hill Bible College at the Adams Run Civic Center and in North Charleston, where she continues to teach now into her eighth year with the bible college.

It was in 2009 that the PATT organization became an inspiration. The first conference was held in 2010 called P.A.T.T., (Passing Along the Torch). For the past seven years she has headed a three days/two night's women's conference in Savannah, Georgia, Charlotte, N.C., Charleston, SC and Beaufort, SC, where many women came together attending workshops on women's issues, while taking a moment to rejuvenate themselves.

It was in June 2011, after 21 years of teaching, she let the job go as the Lord instructed. After a brief six months, O'Violet spent several years directing her own childcare business in North Charleston and Adams Run Children Academy in Adams Run, SC. She closed her personal childcare center in 2016, but still helps in Adams Run. For 31 years O'Violet assisted her husband in pastoring House of God, Miracle Temple, but for the past four years she has been co-pastor while he has been back and forth on mission in Miami, Florida. She no longer has to punch the clock, but as the Lord told her, she works from home. Working from home involves the church, Adams Run Civic Center, PATT, personal property, her desires, and family. To her, the future looks promising.

Evangelist Dorothy Johnson

Dorothy Dean Johnson was born in South Bay, Florida. At age 12 her family moved to Hartford, Connecticut. She attended and graduated from Hartford Public High School in 1973. In 1974 evangelist married Paul Johnson, Jr. and then Evangelist Johnson's new home became Goose Creek, SC. They had three children: Minister Paul Johnson, III, Gloteasa Johnson, and Lichiron Johnson. She is now the proud grandmother of three grandchildren.

After graduating she attended Greater Hartford Community College where she pursued her studies in Business Law. Later she went to Alpha & Omega Bible College and graduated with an associate degree in Ministerial Counseling in the year 2000. At age 17, she received Christ as her personal savior and years later accepted the call of an evangelist that was on her life. Many doors opened to allow her to answer her prophetic calling to travel throughout America preaching and teaching the word of God from Connecticut to California. She is known as a prayer warrior and also holds the office of an Associate Pastor at Living Word Ministries under the leadership of Prophetess Janie Mae Stukes.

Pastor Mary Washington Everett

Having over 20 years experience with the Department of Mental Health, she has trained extensively in the areas of substance abuse, mental health, depression, bipolar disorder, PTSD, anxiety, grief, and marriage counseling.

After answering the call from God in 2004, she was blessed with Divine Skills in Christian Counseling and as a Spiritual Instructor. After attending Rhema Bible College under Apostle Dr. George Hamilton and obtaining her Master's Degree in Divinity, she accepted her recent past position as Assistant Pastor to Dr. Elijah McTeer and Youth Pastor of First Zion Baptist Church in Hollywood, SC. Since 2004, Evangelist Everette has kept a steady pace. She is trainer and co-founder of the Women of War Life Line Ministry, Women Outreach Ministry, Low Country Bible College and Circle of My Sisters Healing Ministry in honor of her sister Kathleen Washington. As Jesus Christ is the love of her life, she enjoys teaching and preaching the Gospel, Christian Counseling, developing Youth Ministry and serving God's people. Pastor Everette had a tremendous amount of aspirations for unifying God's people and making a difference in communities both near and far, which lead to the founding purpose of her very own Ministry in March 2017: Word of Truth Christian Training Center. The grace of God has seen her through her past many accomplishments, and it too shall help her as she continues to carry out the work of the Lord.

Deborah Dawson

Deborah Dawson is poetically known as Deb De' Poet. She is a native of South Carolina; born in Columbia and raised in Charleston, South Carolina. As an artist she writes, produces, and directs stage plays and dramatic skits. Deborah takes the art of the spoken word to another level by putting poetry in motion. Poetry – in-Motion is the name of her play write group and her God given concept to produce dramatic skits where the poems are acted out simultaneously as the poem is recited. This is the say and see of poetry. She says it...you see it. Deborah has also had the opportunity to perform in various plays in the low country. She has performed during the Moja Arts Festival, Charleston Black Expo, and Spoleto. An open door was given to Deborah to produce her own show, The Poet's Place on the CTN network. Maybe you have seen the show or one of her performances or will have the opportunity in the very near future.
